CHAP. 43.

AN ACT TO AMEND THE LAW RELATING TO THE MEASUREMENT OF THE TONNAGE OF MERCHANT SHIPS.

26th August, 1889.

Be it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1.—(1.) In the measurement of a ship for the purpose of ascertaining her register tonnage, no deduction shall be allowed in respect of any space which has not been first included in the measurement of her tonnage.

(2.) In section twenty-one, paragraph (4), of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, the words "First, that nothing shall be added for a closed-in space solely appropriated to the berthing of the crew, unless such space exceeds one-twentieth of the remaining tonnage of the ship, and in case of such excess the excess only shall be added; and secondly"; and in section twenty-two, paragraph (2), of the same Act the words "subject to the deduction for a closed-in space appropriated to the crew, as mentioned in Rule I." shall be repealed.

Provided that this section shall not apply until after the expiration of five years from the date of the passing of this Act to any ship in the measurement or re-measurement of which the deductions prohibited by this section have been made before the tenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, or to any ship the building of which was commenced before the tenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, and which is registered for the first time between that date and the last day of December one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, unless in either case the ship is, before the expiration of the said five years, measured or re-measured in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and any such ship may be measured or re-measured at the request of the owner.

But this exemption shall not extend to any ship in the case of which the allowance for propelling-power space exceeds fifty per cent. of the gross tonnage of the ship.

Subject as aforesaid, the tonnage of every ship shall be estimated for all purposes as if any deduction prohibited by this section had not been made, and the particulars relating to the ship's tonnage in the register book, and in her certificate of registry, shall be corrected accordingly.

2. In the case of any ship built or measured after the passing of this Act, such portion of the space or spaces above the crown of the engine room and above the upper deck as is framed in for the machinery or for the admission of light and air, shall not be included in the measurement of the space occupied by the propelling power, except in pursuance of a request in writing to the Board of Trade by the owner of the ship, and shall not be included in pursuance of such request unless:—

(a.) that portion is first included in the measurement of the gross tonnage; and

(b.) a surveyor appointed under the Fourth Part of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, certifies that the portion so framed in is reasonable in extent and is so constructed as to be safe and seaworthy, and that it cannot be used for any purpose other than the machinery or for the admission of light and air to the machinery or boilers of the ship.

3.—(1.) In measuring or re-measuring a ship for the purpose of ascertaining her register tonnage, the following deductions shall be made from the space included in the measurement of the tonnage:—

(a.) In the case of a ship wholly propelled by sails, any space set apart and used exclusively for the storage of sails;

(b.) In the case of any ship—

(i.) Any space used exclusively for the accommodation of the master;

(ii.) Any space used exclusively for the working of the helm, the capstan, and the anchor gear, or for keeping the charts, signals, and other instruments of navigation, and boat-swan's stores; and (iii.) The space occupied by the donkey engine and boiler if connected with the main pumps of the ship.

(2.) The deduction allowed under this section shall be subject to the following provisions, namely:—

(a.) The space deducted must be certified by a surveyor appointed by the Board of Trade as reasonable in extent and properly and efficiently constructed for the purpose for which it is intended;

(b.) There must be permanently marked in or over every such space a notice stating the purpose to which it is to be applied and that whilst so applied it is to be deducted from the tonnage of the ship;

(c.) The deduction on account of space for storage of sails must not exceed two and a half per cent. of the tonnage of the ship.

4. In the case of a crew steamship which, at the passing of this Act, has an engine-room allowance of thirty-two per cent. of the gross tonnage of the ship, and in which any crew space on deck has not been included in the gross tonnage, whether its contents have been deducted therefrom or not, the crew space shall be, on the application of the owner of the ship, or by direction of the Board of Trade, measured and its contents ascertained and added to the register tonnage of the ship; and if it appears that with such addition to the tonnage the engine-room does not occupy more than thirteen per cent. of the tonnage of the ship, the existing allowance for engine-room of thirty-two per cent. of the tonnage shall be continued, notwithstanding anything in this Act.

5. In the case of a ship constructed with a double bottom for water ballast, if the space between the inner and outer plating thereof is certified by a surveyor appointed by the Board of Trade to be not available for the carriage of cargo, stores, or fuel, then the depth required by section twenty-one, paragraph (2), of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, shall be taken to be the upper side of the inner plating of the double bottom, and that upper side shall, for the purposes of measurement, be deemed to represent the floor timber referred to in that section.

6. If and whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that the tonnage of any foreign ship, as measured by the rules of the country to which she belongs, materially differs from that which would be her tonnage if measured under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and the Acts amending the same, Her Majesty may from time to time, by Order in Council, direct that, notwithstanding any Order in Council for the time being in force under those Acts, any of the ships of that country may, for all or any of the purposes of those Acts, be re-measured in accordance with the provisions of those Acts, and Her Majesty may revoke any Order so made.

7. This Act may be cited as the Merchant Shipping (Tonnage) Act, 1889, and shall be construed as one with the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and the Acts amending the same.

CHAP. 46.

AN ACT TO AMEND THE MERCHANT SHIPPING ACT, 1854, AND THE ACTS AMENDING THE SAME.

26th August, 1889.

Be it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. Every master of a ship and every person lawfully acting as master of a ship by reason of the decease or incapacity from illness of the master of the ship, shall, so far as the case permits, have the same rights, liens, and remedies for the recovery of disbursements properly made by him on account of the ship, and for liabilities properly incurred by him on account of the ship, as a master of a ship now has for the recovery of his wages; and if in any proceeding in any Court of Admiralty or Vice Admiralty, or in any County Court having Admiralty jurisdiction, touching the claim of a master or any person lawfully acting as master to wages or such disbursements or liabilities as aforesaid, any right of set-off or counterclaim is set up, it shall be lawful for the Court to enter into and adjudicate upon all questions, and to settle all accounts then arising or outstanding and unsettled between the parties to the proceeding, and to direct payment of any balance which is found to be due.

2.—(1.) Any agreement with a seaman made under section one hundred and forty-nine of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, may contain a stipulation for payment to or on behalf of the seaman, conditionally on his going to sea in pursuance of the agreement, of a sum not exceeding the amount of one month's wages payable to the seaman under the agreement.

(2.) Save as authorized by this section, any agreement by or on behalf of the employer of a seaman for the payment of money to or on behalf of the seaman conditionally on his going to sea from any port in the United Kingdom shall be void, and no money paid in satisfaction or in respect of any such agreement shall be deducted from the seaman's wages, and no person shall have any right of action, suit or set-off against the seaman or his assignee in respect of any money so paid or purporting to have been so paid.

(3.) Nothing in this section shall affect any allotment made under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, or the Acts amending the same.

(4.) Section two of the Merchant Seamen (Payment of Wages and Rating) Act, 1880, is hereby repealed.

3. Every Superintendent of a merchantile marine office shall keep at his office a list of the seamen who, to the best of his knowledge and belief, have deserted or failed to join their ships after signing an agreement to proceed to sea in them, and shall on request show this list to any master of a ship.

A Superintendent of a merchantile marine office shall not be liable in respect of any entry made in good faith in the list so kept.

4. Where a seaman has agreed with the master of a British ship for payment of his wages in British sterling or any other money, any payment of, or on account of, his wages if made in any other currency than that stated in the agreement, shall, notwithstanding anything in the agreement, be made at the rate of exchange for the money stated in the agreement for the time being current at the place where the payment is made.

5. The provisions of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and the Acts amending the same, with respect to steamships, shall apply to ships propelled by electricity or other mechanical power, with such modifications as the Board of Trade may from time to time prescribe for purposes of adaptation.

6.—(1.) This Act may be cited as the Merchant Shipping Act, 1889.

(2.) This Act shall be construed as one with the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and the Acts amending the same, and this Act and those Acts may be cited collectively as the Merchant Shipping Acts, 1854 to 1889.

CHAP. 52.

AN ACT TO PREVENT THE DISCLOSURE OF OFFICIAL DOCUMENTS AND INFORMATION.

26th August, 1889.

Be it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follow:

1. (1.) (a.) Where a person for the purpose of wrongfully obtaining information—

(i.) enters or is in any part of a place belonging to Her Majesty the Queen, being a fortress, arsenal, factory, dockyard, camp, ship, office, or other like place, in which part he is not entitled to be; or

(ii.) When lawfully or unlawfully in any such place as aforesaid, either obtains any document, sketch, plan, model, or knowledge of anything which he is not entitled to obtain, or takes without lawful authority any sketch or plan; or

(iii.) When outside any fortress, arsenal, factory, dockyard, or camp belonging to Her Majesty the Queen, takes or attempts to take without authority given by or on behalf of Her Majesty, any sketch or plan of that fortress, arsenal, factory, dockyard or camp; or

(b.) Where a person knowingly having possession of, or control over, any such document, sketch, plan, model, or knowledge as has been obtained or taken by means of any act which constitutes an offence against this Act at any time wilfully and without lawful authority communicates or attempts to communicate the same to any person to whom he knows the same ought not, in the interest of the State, to be communicated at that time; or

(c.) Where a person after having been entrusted in confidence by some officer under Her Majesty the Queen with any document, sketch, plan, model or information relating to any such place as aforesaid, or to the naval or military affairs of Her Majesty, wilfully and in breach of such confidence communicates the same when, in the interest of the State, it ought not to be communicated; he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding one year, or to a fine, or to both imprisonment and a fine.

(2.) Where a person having possession of any document, sketch, plan, model or information relating to any fortress, arsenal, factory, dockyard, camp, ship, office, or other like place belonging to Her Majesty, or to the naval or military affairs of Her Majesty, in whatever manner the same has been obtained or taken, at any time wilfully communicates the same to any person to whom he knows the same ought not, in the interest of the State, to be communicated at that time, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be liable to the same punishment as if he committed an offence under the foregoing provisions of this section.

(3.) Where a person commits any act declared by this section to be a misdemeanor, he shall, if he intended to communicate to a foreign State any information, document, sketch, plan, model or knowledge obtained or taken by him, or entrusted to him as aforesaid, or if he communicates the same to any agent of a foreign State, be guilty of felony, and on conviction be liable at the discretion of the Court to penal servitude for life, or for any term not less than five years, or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding two years with or without hard labour.

2.—(1.) Where a person, by means of his holding or having held an office under Her Majesty the Queen, has lawfully or unlawfully either obtained possession of or control over any document, sketch, plan, or model, or acquired any information, and at any time corruptly or contrary to his official duty communicates or attempts to communicate that document, sketch, plan, model or information to any person to whom the same ought not, in the interest of the State, or otherwise in the public interest, to be communicated at that time, he shall be guilty of a breach of official trust.

(2.) A person guilty of a breach of official trust shall—

(a.) if the communication was made or attempted to be made to a foreign State, be guilty of felony, and on conviction be liable at the discretion of the Court to penal servitude for life, or for any term not less than five years, or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding two years, with or without hard labour; and

(b.) in any other case be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding one year, or to a fine, or to both imprisonment and a fine.

(3.) This section shall apply to a person holding a contract with any department of the Government of the United Kingdom, or with the holder of any office under Her Majesty the Queen as such holder, where such contract involves an obligation of secrecy, and to any person employed by any person or body of persons holding such a contract, who is under a like obligation of secrecy, as if the person holding the contract and the person so employed were respectively holders of an office under Her Majesty the Queen.

3. Any person who incites or counsels, or attempts to procure, another person to commit an offence under this Act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction be liable to the same punishment as if he had committed the offence.

4. The expenses of the prosecution of a misdemeanor under this Act shall be defrayed in like manner as in the case of a felony.

5. If by any law made before or after the passing of this Act by the Legislatures of any British possession provisions are made which appear to Her Majesty the Queen to be of the like effect as those contained in this Act, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, suspend the operation within such British possession of this Act or of any part thereof, so long as such law continues in force there, and no longer, and such order shall have effect as if it were enacted in this Act.

Provided that the suspension of this Act, or of any part thereof, in any British possession shall not extend to the holder of an office under Her Majesty the Queen who is not appointed to that office by the Government of that possession.

The expression "British possession" means any part of Her Majesty's dominions not within the United Kingdom.

6. (1.) This Act shall apply to all acts made offences by this Act when committed in any part of Her Majesty's dominions, or when committed by British officers or subjects elsewhere.

(2.) An offence under this Act, if alleged to have been committed out of the United Kingdom, may be inquired of, heard, and determined, in any competent British Court in the place where the offence was committed, or in Her Majesty's High Court of Justice in England or the Central Criminal Court, and the Act of the forty-second year of the reign of King George the Third, chapter eighty-five, shall apply in like manner as if the offence were mentioned in that Act, and the Central Criminal Court as well as the High Court possessed the jurisdiction given by that Act to the Court of King's Bench.

(3.) An offence under this Act shall not be tried by any Court of General or Quarter Sessions, nor by the Sheriff's Court in Scotland, nor by any Court out of the United Kingdom which has not jurisdiction to try crimes which involve the greatest punishment allowed by law.

(4.) The provisions of the Criminal Law and Procedure (Ireland) Act, 1887, shall not apply to any trial under the provisions of this Act.

7.—(1.) A prosecution for an offence against this Act shall not be instituted except by or with the consent of the Attorney-General.

(2.) In this section the expression "Attorney-General" means the Attorney or Solicitor General for England; and as respects Scotland, means the Lord Advocate; and as respects Ireland, means the Attorney or Solicitor General for Ireland; and if the prosecution is instituted in any Court out of the United Kingdom, means the person who in that Court is Attorney-General, or exercises the like functions as the Attorney-General in England.

8. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

Any reference to a place belonging to Her Majesty the Queen includes a place belonging to any department of the Government of the United Kingdom or of any of Her Majesty's possessions, whether the place is or is not actually vested in Her Majesty;

Expressions referring to communications include any communication, whether in whole or in part, and whether the document, sketch, plan, model or information itself or the substance or effect thereof only be communicated;

The expression "document" includes part of a document;

The expression "model" includes design, pattern, and specimen;

The expression "sketch" includes any photograph or other mode of representation of any place or thing;

The expression "office under Her Majesty the Queen," includes any office or employment in or under any department of the Government of the United Kingdom, and so far as regards any document, sketch, plan, model or information relating to the naval or military affairs of Her Majesty, includes any office or employment in or under any department of the Government of any of Her Majesty's possessions.

9. This Act shall not exempt any person from any proceeding for an offence which is punishable at common law, or by military or naval law, or under any Act of Parliament other than this Act, so, however, that no person be punished twice for the same offence.

10. This Act may be cited as the Official Secrets Act, 1889.

NEW WESTMINSTER CITY BY-LAWS.

POUND BY-LAW.

A By-Law to establish and regulate a Pound, to provide for the licensing and execution of dogs, and to prevent certain animals running at large within certain limits in the City of New Westminster.

THE Mayor and Aldermen of the City of New Westminster, in Council assembled, enact as follows:—

1. Every person being the owner, possessor or harbinger of any dog or bitch running at large within the City of New Westminster shall, before the 10th day of January in each year, pay to the City Collector, or to any person duly authorized by the Council to receive the same, the sum of $2 for every such dog, and $5 for every such bitch, to and for the use of the Corporation of the said City; and on payment of such tax the person so paying shall receive from the said Collector or other person receiving the same a paper receipt therefor, and a metal tag having stamped thereon a number, and being of such form or so marked as to distinguish it as a tag for the then current year.

2. Every person receiving a tag, as provided in the preceding section, shall cause the same to be securely attached to the dog or bitch in respect of which it has been granted by means of a collar fastened about the neck of such dog or bitch; and no person shall, after the 10th day of January in any year, permit any dog or bitch of which he is the owner, possessor or harbinger, to run at large within the City, unless such dog or bitch shall have attached about its neck the metal tag herein provided for.

3. There shall be a pound for dogs established within the City, and any police officer or any officer of the Corporation or other person authorized by the Mayor or Chief of Police may seize any dog or bitch running at large without having attached to it a metal tag as herein provided, and may deliver such dog or bitch to the Pound-keeper; and it shall be the duty of the Pound-keeper to receive such dog or bitch and detain the same for forty-eight hours, unless it be sooner redeemed. During the period of detention every such dog or bitch shall be supplied with a sufficient quantity of food and water; and if such dog or bitch be not redeemed within forty eight hours, it shall be the duty of the Pound-keeper to kill such dog or bitch, or sell the same to any person for the highest sum of money he can obtain, and after deducting the tax and the expenses of sale, and all other expenses incurred in the seizure and maintenance of such dog or bitch, pay the balance, if any, into the City Treasury.

4. The owner, possessor or harbinger of any dog or bitch impounded under this by-law may reclaim the same on application to the Pound keeper, and on proof of ownership and payment of the City tax, and all expenses incurred in impounding and maintaining such dog or bitch.

5. It shall be the duty of the Pound-keeper to keep a book in which he shall enter and describe every dog or other animal received by him as Pound-keeper, the date when received, the name of the person by whom delivered, and the manner in which such dog or other animal has been disposed of, and any other particulars required by the City Council, and a similar book shall be kept and exposed at the City Hall for inspection.

6. It shall not be lawful for any bitch to run at large within the City at any time while in heat, and any such bitch may be impounded by any officer of the City or other person, whether it has attached to it the Corporation tag or not, and after having being so impounded such bitch shall be redeemed or disposed of in the manner provided in the preceding section; provided that, if such bitch has attached to it the proper City tag, it shall not be necessary for the person redeeming such bitch to pay the City tax on redemption, but such person shall pay the sum of $1 in addition to all charges in respect of such impounding.

7. It shall not be lawful for any person to permit any horse, mule, ass, bull, cow, goat, sheep, swine, or any geese, ducks or poultry to run at large within the limits hereinafter mentioned, that is to say:—All that portion of the City bounded on the south and east by Fraser River and Queen's Park, and on the north and west by Montreal and Edinburgh Streets.

8. It shall be lawful for the Pound-keeper, duly appointed by the Council, or for any other person, to impound any of the animals mentioned in the next preceding section of this by-law if found running at large contrary to the provisions thereof, or if found trespassing on any enclosure or garden, or on any enclosed land within the limits heretofore set out, and it shall be the duty of the Pound keeper to detain any such animal until the owner or owners thereof shall have paid, over and above any claim for damages for the trespass and the charges, or over and above the penalty alone, where no damage has been committed, the following sums:—For impounding any bull, stallion, boar or ram, $1; for impounding any horse, mule, or ass, 50 cents; for impounding any cow, cattle, sheep, goat, or swine, 25 cents; for impounding any goose, duck, or poultry, 10 cents.

9. It shall be the duty of the Pound-keeper to provide and supply with proper shelter and good and sufficient food and water daily all animals detained by him as Pound-keeper, and for so doing he shall be entitled to demand and receive the following sums, over and above his fees as Pound-keeper, and over and above all other charges:—For bulls, stallions, boars, rams, horses, mules, asses, cows and other cattle, 50 cents each per day; for sheep, goats, and swine, 25 cents each per day; for dogs and bitches, 10 cents each per day; for geese, ducks and poultry, 5 cents each per day. In the case of milk cows being impounded the Pound-keeper shall, at least twice each day, milk each cow so impounded, and for so doing he shall be entitled to keep for his own use, or to sell the milk so obtained.

10. Any person claiming damages from trespass by any animal impounded may, at any time before the animal is released, deliver to the Pound-keeper a duplicate statement, in writing, of his demand against the owner of such animal for such trespass, and shall at the same time give his written agreement, under seal (with a satisfactory surety, if required by the Pound-keeper), in the form following, or to the like effect:—

"I (or we) do hereby agree that I will pay to the owner of the (described animals) by me (A.B.) this day impounded, all loss, costs, charges and expenses to which the said owners may be put in case the distress by me, the said (A.B.), proves to be illegal, or in case the claim for damages now put in by me fails to be established."

11. In all cases the Pound-keeper shall, within 24 hours, and not before six hours, after the animal or animals, geese, ducks or poultry, shall have been impounded, cause a written or printed notice, or partly written and partly printed, thereof to be affixed to each of the pound gates, and in a conspicuous place on the door or wall of the City Hall, which notice shall give a particular description of the distress, and shall specify when and where the same shall be sold, and if the owner of such distress, or some other person on his or her behalf, shall not within ten days, in the case of swine, calves, sheep, goats, geese, ducks, or poultry, after such notice shall have been affixed as aforesaid, redeem the same by paying the charges of the Pound-keeper and such other charges as may be fixed by this by-law, and the penalty and damages (if any), it shall be lawful for the Pound-keeper to cause such distress to be sold, and after deducting his own charges, and such other charges as may be fixed by this by-law, and the penalty and damages (if any), and costs, to pay the overplus (if any) to the owner or owners of such distress if known, and if not known, to pay the same into the City treasury, and if not claimed within three months after being received by the City Treasurer the same shall be applied by him to City purposes, and the said Pound-keeper shall pay such damage (if any) to the person entitled to receive the same, if he, the said Pound-keeper, shall have realized sufficient for that purpose from the redemption or sale of such distress, over and above the other charges and expenses provided by this by-law, and he shall pay the penalty to the City Treasurer for City purposes: Provided always that whenever any horses, mares, geldings, colts, fillies, mules, asses, bulls, oxen or cows shall be impounded under this by-law, after such distress shall have been in pound for the space of one week, the Pound-keeper shall, in addition to the notice hereinbefore provided, advertise such distress in at least one newspaper published within the City, before proceeding to sell the same, and such sale shall not be made before the expiration of twelve days after such distress shall have been impounded.

12. It shall be lawful for any person to drive or take away to the pound any animal mentioned in this by-law if found roaming at large contrary to the provisions thereof, and it shall be the duty of the Pound-keeper to pound the same subject to the provisions herein contained, and any person so driving any of the animals in this section hereinafter mentioned to the pound, and distraining the same under this by-law, shall in respect of each of the said animals, be entitled to demand and receive the following sums:—For bulls, stallions, rams, boars, and he-goats, each $1; for horses, mules, asses, cows and other cattle, each 50 cents; for geese, ducks and poultry, each 10 cents.

13. The Pound-keeper shall be allowed, over and above the fees hereinbefore mentioned, the fees, that is to say:—For advertising, 30 cents, and actual disbursements; for attending for summons and serving the same, 50 cents; for every sale 25 cents; such sums to be charged against the animals impounded.

14. Nothing contained in this by-law shall be held to prevent the driving of any of the animals mentioned therein through the public streets, provided the same be in sufficient and competent charge, and not allowed to stray or loiter by the way.

15. In the construction of this by-law, in describing or referring to any person, party or animal, or to any matter or thing, any word importing the masculine gender or singular number, shall be understood to include, and shall be applicable to, several persons or parties or animals, as well as to one person, party or animal, and females as well as males, and bodies corporate as well as individuals, and several matters or things as well as one matter or thing, unless it be otherwise provided, or there be something in the subject or context repugnant to construction.

16. All by-laws relating to the impounding of cattle or other animals, or to animals running at large within the said City are hereby repealed, and all other by-laws of the City are hereby repealed in so far, and in so far only as they are inconsistent with the provisions of this by-law.

17. This by-law may be cited as the "Pound By-law, 1889."

18. This by-law shall come into force and take effect on the 1st day of April, A.D. 1890.
